BRISTOL

BY FIONA HAMILTON (SOMA GALLERY)

There's more to Bristol than just Banksy.

GETTING THERE: Bristol is considered to be one of the most accessible cities in the country. You can drive, catch a train, or even a plane right into the heart of the city.

GETTING AROUND
Walk: Take in the sights of Bristol on foot including the harbour side, Old City and Cabot Circus. Look out for the blue information points throughout the city which feature maps and points of interest throughout the city.

Bicycle: Acknowledging its status as a cycle friendly destination, Bristol has been crowned the UK's First Cycling City. So just hop on a bike and you're off…

Bus: An easy way to get about and see the sights.
