DUBLIN

BY AISLING FARINELLA

INFO

Dublin is both the largest city and capital of Ireland as well one the fastest growing tourist destinations in Europe! Currency: Euro. Airport: Dublin Airport Distance from the Airport: Approx 10 km to the city centre.

GETTING AROUND

Foot: The quickest and best way to get around and see the sights of Dublin. Taxi: Best for short distances with a full car of passengers; a taxi can be an economical way to get around the city. Taxi Ranks can be found on: O'Connell Street, Dame Street (Opposite Trinity college), and St. Stephen's Green. DART: Dublin's light rail network that connects the suburbs with the city. Even if you don't plan to leave the city limits, consider taking a trip on the DART to travel the length of Dublin Bay in 40 minutes! LUAS: Dublin's tram system that takes it name from the Irish word for 'Speed'. It runs on two lines – the Red and the Green. Take the Green line to get to Urban Outfitters in Dundrum.

Fold line 1: front page

U.O. STORES

Dublin is lucky enough to have two Urban Outfitters.

Temple Bar
4 Cecilia Street and 7 1/2 Fownes St.
Upper Temple Bar
Dublin 2, Ireland
Telephone
00-353-1-670-6202
Opening Hours
M, Tu, W, Sa 10–7
Th, F 10–8, Su 12–6

Dundrum
Unit 44, Sandyford Road
Dundrum Town Center
Dublin 16, Ireland
Telephone
00353-1-296-2140
Opening Hours
M–F 9–9, Sa 9–7
Su 10–7

If you can't make it to the stores, shop online:
www.urbanoutfitters.com

Fold line 2

MUSIC

The South William | 52 South William Street, Dublin 2. Climaxxx residency night for dancing it up downstairs.

The Bernard Shaw | 11–12 South Richmond Street, Portobello. Assquake residency and other fun random events.

The Academy | Middle Abbey Street, Dublin 1. Best venue for gigs.

Tripod & Crawdaddy | Harcourt Street, Dublin 2.

Whelan's | 25 Wexford Street, Dublin 2.

Fold line 3

NOTES

Fold line 4: back page

SEE

The deer in Phoenix Park.

Dun Laoghaire Harbour. There is nothing quite like a 99 ice cream on the pier!

Chester Beatty Library | Dublin Castle, Dame Street, Dublin 2. Amazing Asian culture collection and best secret city garden.

St Kevin's Park | Off Camden Row, Dublin 8. Apparently the most haunted graveyard in Dublin, but super pretty and covered in cherry blossom in the spring.

SPEND

Circus Store | Powerscourt Town House Centre, South William Street, Dublin 2. Well for Circus I'm biased! I'm a partner in the store with my lovely friends Fiona Mullen and Damien Gahan. Circus is all about cool designers and fun events.

Lucy's Thrift Store | Temple bar, Dublin 1. It's located in a basement in Temple Bar, and has gone from Lucy popping in to open the shop every other day, to a full blown full time treasure trove of second had clothes, vintage pieces and curious George objects.

The Loft Market | Powerscourt Centre, Dublin 2. Young designers all under one roof every Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Laid back atmosphere with a DJ on Saturday, and a couch to cure the hangover.

The Winding Stair Bookshop | 40 Lower Ormond Quay, Dublin 1. Best book shop in the city. New press mixed up with some old editions and pretty random finds.

EAT

Gruel | 68a Dame Street, Dublin 2. Just like eating at home, except there is wine and dessert and you don't have to wash up!

Honest to Goodness Café | Georges St Arcade, Dublin 2. Kick start and a cup of tea please.

Jo Burger | Rathmines Road, Dublin 6. Burgers so big I always order mine without the bun.

Le Gueuleton | 1 Fade Street, Dublin 2. Fancy French cuisine in a laid back restaurant.

The Cake Café | 62 Pleasants Place (behind Camden Street), Dublin 8. Mmmm cake and special toast of the day,

DRINK

Grogans | 15 South William Street, Dublin 2. The best toasties if you get peckish after a couple of drinks.

The Long Hall | 51 South Georges Street, Dublin 2. Old school and oh so shiny.

Venu Brasserie | Annes Lane, Dublin 2. Amazing cocktails, that's all I remember!