HAMBURG

BY HUMAN EMPIRE

There is more to Germany than just Berlin! Hamburg is the second largest city in Germany. The Beatles kick started their career after performing a series of concerts at the Star Club in the St. Pauli district.

How to get around:

Public Transport - With the underground system (U-Bahn), the suburban trains (S-Bahn), buses, and ferries; it is easy to get from A–B in the city. Most transport works into the night, if not around the clock.

Taxi - You can hop in a taxi either at a taxi rank (sign posted with a green sign) or flag one down in the street.

Bike - Do as the locals do and explore Hamburg by bike.

SEE

Alter Elbtunnel | Landungsbrücken 20359
The place to get the most impressive view of Hamburg with the harbour in the background.

Rote Flora | Schulterblatt 71, 20357
A famous old building that was a cultural and political meeting point in the Schanzenviertel quarter, which is seen as the sub-cultural centre of Hamburg.

Glockengießerwall / Steintorwall - You'll find all the important art museums and the main station of Hamburg in this area.
Museums to see:
Hamburger Kunsthalle | Glockengießerwall 1, 20095.
Deichtorhallen | Deichtorstraße 1, 20095.

Speicherstadt / HafenCity – Where old meets new. The Speicherstadt is the very old and nice warehouse district at the River Elbe. HafenCity on the other hand is Hamburg's newest quarter - where you'll see lots of modern architecture.

SPEND

Hanseplatte | Neuer Kamp 32, 20357
Everything in this shop is made in Hamburg, with a focus on music; definitely worth a visit because this is Hamburg.

Human Empire – Located in the Schanzenviertel quarter. You'll find all things design related.
Human Empire Shop I | Schulterblatt 132, 20357
Human Empire Shop II | Bartelsstraße 26, 20357

Sweet Suburbia | Eulenstraße 49, 22765
When you enter this shop you leave Germany and find yourself in a British department store.

Lockengelöt | Wohlwillstraße 20, 20359
This shop is made by designers who build things from materials they find – recycling design!

EAT

Hatari Pfälzer Cantina - Very good traditional food from the German region Pfalz.
They have three restaurants in the districts: Schanzenviertel, Eimsbüttel and Altona/Ottensen.

Unter den Linden | Juliusstraße 16, 22769
Nice Café with old-style atmosphere and very good coffee, cake and meals.

Bok | Schanzenstr 27, 20357
Very good Asian food.

Kleine Pause | Wohlwillstraße 37, 20359
German bratwurst and fries. A typical German snack bar with loud speaking, apron wearing ladies who serve you your meals.

DRINK

Yoko Mono | Marktstraße 41, 20357
Retro-style pub located in the very interesting Karolinenviertel quarter.

Toast Bar | Wohlwillstraße 54, 20359
Listed as one of the world's best bars where you'll get good cocktails to wash down the famous free peanuts.

Saal II | Schulterblatt 83, 20357
A good place to stop for a few drinks. It can get crowded, but it's worth the wait.
