LONDON

BY NOTES BY NAIVE

INFO
Capital of the United Kingdom, and largest city in the European Union. Currency: GBP – British Pound. Airports: Heathrow / Gatwick / Luton / Stanstead / London City Airport. There are trains such as the Heathrow Express, Gatwick Express, and Stanstead Express that will take you from the airport straight into London.

HOW TO GET AROUND
Foot: A fun, free and green way to see the sights of London. London Underground: Get from A–B on the world's oldest and most famous underground system, even though 55% of it is actually outdoors! Bus: Everyone knows about London's big red buses. Not only they are an icon of London, they are also a quick and convenient route to get around London, whilst providing plenty of sightseeing opportunities. Taxi: What's a trip to London without a ride in a Black Cab? They can be hailed in the street or at designated ranks situated in many mainline rail stations.

Fold line 1: front page

U.O. STORES

Covent Garden
42-56 Earlham Street
London WC2H 9LJ

Telephone
0207-759-6390

Opening Hours
M, Tu, W, Sa 10-7
Su 12-6, Th, F 10-8

Kensington High St.
36-38 Kensington
High Street
London W8 4PF

Telephone
0207-761-1001

Opening Hours
M, Tu, W, F, Sa 10-7
Th 10-8, Su 12-6

Oxford Street
200 Oxford Street
London W1D 1NU

Telephone
0207-907-0800

Opening Hours
M, Tu, W, F, Sa 10-8
Th 10-9, Su 12-6

Fold line 2

MUSIC

When asked for her suggestions on places to go out and dance in London, Tommy said:

"ON TOP OF HAMPSTEAD HEATH!"

And we say - why not?

Fold line 3

NOTES

Fold line 4: back page

SEE

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road, NW1 2BE
An intriguing combination of Hieronymus Bosch paintings, vintage prosthetic limbs, medicinal jars and other arte facts.

For a bit of nature, all the royal parks are great, but my favourite is St.James's Park

For nature you can buy, head over to Petersham Nurseries or Clifton Nurseries.

SPEND

For old books | Cecil Court and Charing Cross Road

For new books | Persephone Books
59 Lamb's Conduit Street, WC1N 3NB

Claire de Rouen
First Level, 125 Charing Cross Road, WC2H 0EA

For Shoes and Hats | Jermyn Street

Few & Far
242 Brompton Road, SW3 2BB
I haven't found another shop with a more beautiful collection of objects.

Earth Natural Foods
200 Kentish Town Road, London NW5 2AE
It's one of the best stocked in London and they often bring in hard-to-find items on request.

For picking up gifts and souvenirs, British delicatessens are great places!

A.Gold, 42 Brushfield Street, E1 6AG

Paul Rothe & Son, 35 Marylebone Lane, W1U 2NN

EAT & DRINK

Story Deli
3 Dray Walk, The Old Truman Brewery, 91 Brick Lane, E1 6QL
If you like your pizza crispy.

Mallett
26 Noel Street, W1F 8GY
If you like your pizza classic.
Both come with fresh and generous toppings!

Borough Market
For De Gustibus bread and Stichelton.

Ottolenghi
Everything in Ottolenghi – how could you not want to when all the food looks so beautiful?

Rose Bakery
Dover Street Market, 17-18 Dover Street, W1s 4LT
For a scone, carrot cake and some tea if you manage to make your way up to the top floor, without being distracted by all the wares presented at Dover Street Market.

EAT & DRINK

Sedap
102 Old Street, EC1V 9AY
Hainanese chicken rice at Sedap is the most faithful representation of this Singaporean/Malaysian dish I've had in London yet.

Monmouth Coffee Company
27 Monmouth Street, Covent Garden, WC2H 9EU
I'm not usually a coffee drinker but the aroma from the shop is often too hard to resist.